WILSON-BROWN, Ph.D.

*"I found god in myself and I loved her
I loved her fiercely"*
— Ntozake Shange

“Connection with God is like the popsicles my dad would give me as a kid... there was something sacred about that sugary frozen ice on a stick. The simplicity of it connected me to a peace within myself that I didn't have to strive for... an innate connection with God. This sweet spot was Spirituality.... Simple.. Pure... and DELICIOUS! I wanted to live in this place of sweet satisfaction and bliss and help others find their sweet spot as well. We are ALL worthy of an absolutely delicious and abundant life!”

Pastor Anika XOXO

Who is Rev. Anika Wilson-Brown, Ph.D.?

Dynamic. Engaging. Transformative. These three words give witness to what has become the lifework of Spiritual Leader, Rev. Anika Wilson-Brown, Ph.D. Anika's innate ability to fuse the treatment of body, mind, and spirit for a lasting indelible impression on one's best self and best life puts her in a category of her own.

Dynamic. One of the most sought-after speakers on the topic of merging faith and psychotherapy, Dr. Anika has spoken on diverse platforms, ranging from arena-sized gatherings to one-on-one small sessions. She uses her platform as a means of helping the individual actualize his or her highest purpose. As the Keynote Speaker for Iyanla Vanzant's Inner Vision Life Coaching Graduation, Dr. Anika was able to help the audience connect the dots of body, mind, and spirit in a practical way, charging them to go out into the world with the confidence that they are living both in and on divine purpose. At the National Alliance on Mental Illness, Dr. Anika shared a groundbreaking presentation on Spirituality and Mental Health, making plain the dire need for people and institutions of faith to both acknowledge and embrace therapy as a method of healing, in addition to prayer and faith traditions. Dr. Anika is a powerful preacher of the gospel and skillfully crafts an approach to wholeness that embraces and balances both the activation of

Pastor Anika

Holy Spirit as well as the application of spiritual healing practices. Her message is one of healing and restoration through practical application making her an emerging leader who transcends religious, gender, cultural and social barriers. Her message is Dynamic.

Engaging. It is said that people don't care how much you know until they know how much you care. This concept is a foundational one for Dr. Anika in her spiritual service and care for both the congregation and individuals. Raised as the eldest child of Rev. Willie F. and Rev. Mary L. Wilson, Dr. Anika learned early in life how to hide in the shadows of low self-esteem and intimidation. Too shy to speak in public, it wasn't until her teen years that she slowly began to emerge from the background and find her voice, only to be engulfed by the blazing glare of the ministry spotlight. It is from those moments of uncertainty and despair that Dr. Anika's sensitivity to people's real-world problems developed. To that end, she continues to work tirelessly to reach the people who feel utterly lost, re-engaging them in life to remind them that every day provides an opportunity for them to start all over again. Her approach is one whereby she helps people identify the root of their problems so that they might be transformed through the healing power of love. Her presence is Engaging.

Transformative. Dr. Anika's growth over the years give evidence to the power of transformation. As she grew up in Union Temple Baptist Church, she evolved and elevated in various ministry roles ranging from summer camp staff, Youth Counselor, Deacon, Praise and Worship Leader, and Minister of Music. Both licensed to preach and ordained at Union Temple after returning from college, Dr. Anika was ultimately appointed as Assistant Pastor in 2013. Shifting from insecurity to innovative leadership, Dr. Anika utilizes her wisdom, experiences and warm personality to make great impact on this generation both in and outside of the walls of the church. One of her goals is to help people identify their strengths and abilities so that they are equipped to walk boldly in them. Many have been inspired and encouraged by her authenticity. Her life is Transformative.

Dr. Anika received a Bachelor of Psychology from Spelman College and a Master of Social Work from Catholic University of America. In 2020, Dr. Anika earned her Doctor of Philosophy from Loyola University Maryland in Counseling Education and Supervision. Dr. Anika believes in the power of mentorship so she has gleaned wisdom and collaboration from several groups in recent years: Rise Together Mentorship Network, Circle of Sacred Fire Preaching Intensive for Women of Color in Ministry, and Equal Women in Ministry Group. Dr. Anika was recently appointed as Chair of Mayor Muriel Bowser's Interfaith Council, a body that advises the Mayor of the District of Columbia, the Mayor's Director for Religious Affairs, and the Mayor's Cabinet, on various matters, especially those that affect the spiritual, faith and religious well-being of all the residents of the District of Columbia. Dr. Anika has also been featured in numerous media outlets but most notably, an article in Essence Magazine "Standing Tall in Her Stilettos: A Daughter Becomes Pastor of Her Father's Church" written by Ahmad Greene-Hayes, Ph.D.

Pastor, entrepreneur, leader and therapist are heavy positions to uphold, but Dr. Anika does just that with a tremendous amount of Grace. For her, the most important accomplishment is being a wife to John and mommy to Jendayi, Nyela and Naaji. Her gift and greatest joy is the quality time that she spends with them and her extended family.

Rev. Dr. Anika Wilson-Brown is Dynamic. Her ministry is Engaging. Her life is Transformative.

Greetings and Felicitations!!!

Greetings

It is with supreme joy and divine elation that I am blessed to share in this Investiture of the Official Installation of my daughter to succeed me as pastor of Union Temple Baptist Church.

Pastor "A", as she is so amicably and respectfully called was NOT APPOINTED to this HIGH HILL of HOLY, DIVINE FAVOR, Dr. Anika Wilson-Brown WAS APPOINTED to this STATION of SACRED SHEPHERD of Union Temple Baptist Church.

When she assumed this pastorate, she was featured in an article in ESSENCE MAGAZINE. The headline of the article was "STANDING TALL IN STILETTOS". The interviewer began by saying to follow after the renowned work of your father, "you have some big shoes to fill". To this statement she gave a wittingly incisive retort; I am not trying to fill his shoes, "I WEAR STILETTOS"!! As a PHD in Psychology she is very aware that symbols contain latent content and are used to redirect warped thinking and disorders of the mind.

This powerful preacher (proud to say she is my daughter) referred to herself as standing in stilettos that she stands tall to continue my legacy, but "in a different way, [her] own way". She also spoke of standing tall in stilettos to denote her fearless courage to correct the twisted theology, delusional doctrine, sick sociology, and perverted psychology throughout the history of the church that has deemed women unworthy and unqualified to lead not only in the church but in every segment of society.

Standing tall in stilettos was a profound way to disrupt and destroy the historic myths and lies of paternalistic men and patronizing women that woman should be silent in the church.

This Daughter of Zion adamantly declares that it must be UNDERSTOOD that no one can UNDERESTIMATE or UNDERATE or UNDERVALUE her to UNDERTAKE this assignment because she is UNDERGIRDED, UNDERNEATH by the Everlasting Arms of God.

Executive Pastor Retired (Pastor Mary) and I are Hallelujah Happy and Peacock Proud to see our daughter assume the mantle of Union Temple as Lead Pastor.

As God said to Jeremiah 1:5 "Before [God] formed [Pastor "A"] in [Pastor Mary's] womb, [God] knew[her], before [she] was born and [He] set her apart; [God] appointed [her] as a prophet to the nations". (New International Version).

Further, when I named Pastor "A" Anika, little did I know until genealogical research uncovered that this is the name of her initial ancestor brought to America as a slave from West Africa. Anika means "brilliant, fearless, favored, unique sweet face. She is all of that and more.

Please join me as I salute and support Rev. Dr. Anika Wilson-Brown and as I do so, "As it is written, eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, nether have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath in [store for Pastor "A" and the Union Temple family"].

Love Dad

Faith of our Mothers!

Faith

2 Timothy 1:5-7 J.B. Phillips New Testament

⁵⁻⁷ I often think of that genuine faith of yours—a faith that first appeared in your grandmother Lois, then in Eunice your mother, and is now, I am convinced, in you as well. Because you have this faith, I now remind you to stir up that inner fire which God gave you at your ordination. For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but a spirit of power and love and a sound mind.

TO MY AWESOME ANOINTED daughter, Rev. Dr. Anika Wilson-Brown.

No words can adequately express how I am feeling today. I'm remembering the first time I held you in my arms. You had that spark in your beautiful big eyes and would observe and evaluate your environment. You rarely cried, except for when you were the focus of attention.

As you grew in faith, you quietly became a peer counselor and innovator. You displayed your gifts in meaningful and unique ways.

Just as the scripture states, your FAITH is a GENERATIONAL BLESSING! It flows from your GREAT GREAT GRANDMOTHER, ELLA BROWN, who was a part of the Unity Church; to your GREAT GRANDMOTHER Rev. Essie Jackson, who was a SPIRITUALIST pastor and seer; to your GRANDMOTHER, Mary Lewis, who introduced Buffalo New York to Kwanzaa. You now stand on the shoulders of all of us who have thrown embers onto the fire that burns within you!

You have overcome so many obstacles. Your perseverance, steadfastness, commitment and dedication to the cause of Christ is an inspiration to everyone you meet. Your ability to persistently search for solutions to problems and find innovative ways to enhance this great institution is a testament to your amazing leadership.

The accomplishments over the past 2-years are just the first steps on your journey. God has greater things in store for you.

I hope you know that I love you from the bottom of my heart and we are so proud of you!

Love Mom

Congratulations

Reverend Dr. Anika Wilson Brown

April 23, 2022

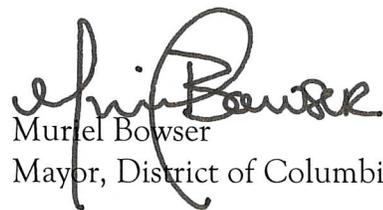

As Mayor of Washington, DC, it is my pleasure to extend congratulations to Reverend Dr. Anika Wilson Brown on your installation as the first woman Pastor of the historic Union Temple Baptist Church.

May Union Temple Baptist Church's legacy as a stabilizing force east of the Anacostia River continue to grow as you lead your church in empowering and equipping individuals to live full and abundant lives.

As you gather to celebrate this special occasion, I wish you and your congregation the utmost success in your collaboration to serve all people and fight for justice.

On behalf of the nearly 700,000 residents of Washington, DC, congratulations on your installation and thank you for your service to our community.

Psalm 118:24 (CEV) says “This day belongs to the LORD! Let’s celebrate and be glad today.”

On behalf of the residents of Ward 8, we would like to congratulate Reverend Dr. Anika Wilson-Brown on her installation as the Lead Pastor of Union Temple Baptist Church.

This is a historic moment for this world-renowned institution that has been on the forefront of radical change. Union Temple has boldly challenged the status quo and accomplished an incredible list of firsts; the first ordination of women into Baptist ministry regionally; promoting inter-faith worship between Christians and Orthodox Muslims, investing in the development of affordable housing, home ownership, financial literacy programs, health promotion activities, and so much more. Union Temple also engaged with and hosted many of the African American community’s leading warriors in the struggle for civil rights and social justice, including Dr. Dorothy I. Height, Dick Gregory, Rev. Jesse Jackson, and former Mayor Marion Barry.

This great institution has been such a blessing to this community. You have opened your doors to my office and allowed us to use that sacred ground for numerous community events like the State of the Ward Address and the Annual Ward 8 Turkey Drive. I look forward to many new ventures that God has planned under your leadership. We will continue to support you and work together to make a difference, not just by what we say, but what we do collectively.

You have my best wishes that your spiritual leadership will continue to provide an anchor to your members and the community at large.

Again, congratulations Reverend Dr. Anika Wilson-Brown.

Sincerely,

Message from Queen Mother, Janice “Mama Takiya” Crouch
Union Temple Baptist Church

Remember the prayer Harriette Tubman prayed, “Lord, I’m going to hold steady on to You and You’ve got to see me through.”

Hold on! Pastor Anika Wilson-Brown, Ph.D., God will see you through.

History

Union Temple Baptist Church was founded by the late Reverend Chester R. Smallwood on July 6, 1967 and was officially recognized by the Baptist Ministers Council of Washington and Vicinity as a Missionary Baptist Church in November 1967.

In 1969 after a period of illness, Reverend Smallwood was unable to continue service. Hence, Reverend Simon Beamon served, assisted by Reverend William Roundtree (September 1971-September 1972), and Reverend John Moss (September 1972 - February 1973). In March 1973, Reverend Willie F. Wilson was called by the then active membership of 30, to be the chosen shepherd, and assumed the Pastorate.

In 1990, against incredible odds and opposition, Rev. Wilson led the construction of a $3.5 million church complex in the heart of Anacostia. With its Kente-stained glass windows, the church receives world acclaim for its 30-foot by 19-foot mural depicting the Last Supper. It not only has the image of a black Christ, but also has the twelve disciples depicted as twelve significant Africans and African Americans, among them Martin Luther King, Jr., Rosa Parks, and Malcolm X.

During Reverend Wilson's many years of inspirational leadership, the membership has grown to over 8,000 and God continually adds to the church. Reverend Wilson has distinguished UTBC as one that is on the cutting edge of social, economic, and political changes with the church, community, and the world. UTBC ministries and programs include but are not limited to: The Akoma Project which provides case management to individuals suffering from HIV/AIDS, the Aya Program which provides long term welfare recipients with assistance in the transition from welfare to work, the Harambee House which provides residential and counseling services to court adjudicated juveniles, the Manhood and Womanhood Training Programs which assist adolescents in their transition from childhood to adulthood. Drawing upon African heritage and contemporary economics, UTBC integrates African culture into all aspects of the worship service: development of O.U.R.S. which is designed to sale African-American made products to African-American consumers, making good use of the dancing, music making talents and skills peculiar to our "African roots" and the Tribal System to enhance spiritual development, fellowship, communication, implementation of church programs and policies, and to ensure the general welfare of the church and its members. UTBC serves as host to the Leon Wright Seminary for those within the community who choose to expand their knowledge of the Christian church. Until 2009, UTBC co-sponsored the outdoor festival, UNIFEST, which routinely drew 200,000 visitors each year.

Her Grace Corletta J. Vaughn has been a trailblazer and forerunner among women in ministry for the last 40 years. From answering the call of God in 1974 to her elevation as a Bishop on November 5, 1995 in the West African country of Nigeria; God has used her life and ministry to impact the Body of Christ and serve a death blow to the kingdom of darkness tearing down structures of sin, segregation and religious bondage.

Dr. Corletta J. Vaughn is the Senior Pastor of the Holy Ghost Cathedral Church in Detroit Michigan and Chief Apostle Gofu Tell It Evangelistic Ministry, Worldwide.

As an advocate of scholarship; Bishop Corletta J. Vaughn is a graduate of Detroit Public Schools, Wayne County Community College (A.A. Nursing), William Tyndale Bible College (B.R.E. Pastoral Studies), Oral Roberts University (M.Ed Post Secondary Administration), Christ for the Nations Theological Seminary (Doctor of Divinity) and is currently enrolled in Cappella University as a PhD candidate (Higher Education Administration).

Dr. Vaughn is the mother of two beautiful - gifted daughters; Shannon and Apprille; and multiple thousands of spiritual sons and daughters in the Body of Christ that know her as a "Mother in Zion".

Bishop Dr. Corletta J. Vaughn is among the great company of last-day apostles, sounding the trumpet calling the Church of Jesus Christ back to Biblical Faith in God, with signs, wonders, miracles and authentic demonstrations of the Holy Ghost in righteousness and power.

Lead Pastor of Union Temple Baptist Church

There is a peace in knowing that you are where you're destined to be, and walking in your divine purpose. There will be things that arise to "rock the boat." Stay right there in that peaceful place as the journey progresses. Sometimes, you may have to follow the example of Jesus and simply rest in and through it. And when external situations around you don't engage the same posture, you can arise and say PEACE, be still. Isaiah 26:3 NIV You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you.

Phillipians 4:7 NIV And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
